Event Host

Our September Charity and Event Co-Host is Angel Light Academy

Angel Light Academy teaches leadership, team building, problem solving, conflict resolution and communication skills to youth and adults. ALA Believes that every person has their own innate leadership ability. ALA is a caring resource for people of all ages who seek to change their lives. Angel Light Academy's Mission is to enhance the health, happiness and well-being of individuals through the practice and demonstration of unconditional love. This is accomplished through Education, Service and Research. Through training, mentoring and nurturing, ALA creates inspiring leaders who provide exceptional service to others and to their communities. The reputation and success of this training organization have created trusted relationships with teacher, school districts and community professional resulting in increased requests for all of our programs.
